WEEKLY NEWS

Sunday 1st October 2023
(Trinity 17)

It would be wonderful if we could put ourselves in the dryer for ten minutes, then come out wrinkle-free and three sizes smaller

WELCOME

Here we are in October already, I'm sure it's only about two weeks that I was saying that summer was on it's way! Time is flying by and it will soon be Christmas season (Yea). In the meantime, enjoy this week's edition and PLEASE let me have something from you to put in the next few editions. Love you all.

PRAYERS FOR THIS WEEK

Collect:

Gracious God, you call us to fullness of life: deliver us from unbelief and banish our anxieties with the liberating love of Jesus Christ our Lord who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Prayer for the week ahead for our Parish and Ourselves.

Heavenly Father, we choose to look to you as we begin this new week. We ask that you would reveal your love to us anew. Lord, we give you our friendships, our learning, our hopes and our troubles. Come help us to work together in love and forgiveness. Amen.

Encouraging Words:

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go." (Joshua 1: 9)

GOD SLOT

True greatness is found not in what we have accomplished and gained for ourselves but in what we have done and given to "the least of these" (Matthew 25:40), the hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, and imprisoned.

Him

I tried to find Him on the Christian Cross,
but He was not there;
I went to the Temple of the Hindus and to the old pagodas,
but I could not find a trace of Him anywhere.
I searched on the mountains and in the valleys,
but neither in the heights nor in the depths
was I able to find Him.
I went to the Caaba in Mecca,
but He was not there either.
I questioned the scholars and philosophers
but He was beyond their understanding.
I then looked in my heart
and it was there where He dwelled that I saw Him;
He was nowhere else to be found.
(Jalaluddin Rumi)

Think about a family member or a carer who bathes, changes, and cares for the elderly, the sick, the dying; she or he is a great one. Genuine greatness never puts itself in a position of superiority over another. It's not about me; my nation, my tribe, my people, my religion, my politics, my bank account, my house, my job, my accomplishments, my reputation, my status. Our greatness is revealed in our service and care of others regardless of her or his ability or willingness to pay, repay, or return the favour. When Jesus talked about loving others even when they don't love you (Luke 6:32-34), doing good to those who do not do good to you, lending without expectation of repayment, he was describing greatness. Greatness is not something to be achieved or earned. It is a quality that arises within us when our lives are in balance and we step into our better selves. That's the life Jesus offers us. That's the life I want to live. I want to be great, don't you?

God Bless,

Revd Ken

JOKE SPOT

Little Johnny was 5 years old came home after his first week at school and said to his mum that they were told by the teacher how to make babies. His surprised and very worried mum asked him to explain what the teacher said. 'Well', replied Little Johnny, 'if you take away the y and add ies you make babies!'

LEGACY GIVING

Have you thought about leaving a donation to the church in your Will? Would you like to? If so, full details of how to include a Legacy gift to the church can be found on the church website or take one of the Legacy leaflets, which are on display in each church. Failing this, ask your warden for information. Legacy donations can be made for specific use as prescribed by you, or added to the general income. Any amount of financial assistance is always welcomed and appreciated.
